POMELO SOFA

191-24-04

Bespoke is a sofa that upholds our philosophical approach to a larger furnishing project: go beyond the conventions of predefined space, showcasing how it can become something else altogether simply by moving the back rests. It has superb sartorial and technical detailing, such as the asymmetric cut of the back cushions that improves support in the lower back. New materials deliver sensational softness and comfort without compromising contemporary aesthetic. Available in various materials, sizes and configurations.
