

ARCHIPELAGO ARMCHAIR

The Archipelago Dining Chair was inspired by the blue-footed booby bird. It has undulating lines, which make an elegant and unique piece. The upholstery, curve, and arm design were inspired by the blue-footed booby's beautiful wings. It, too, has a sophisticated, upholstered structure with a fabric or leather cover, which simulates a "second skin." For more options, check out our dining & side chairs category.
