

PATRIZIO BUFFET

The somewhat unusual design effect inherent in the Patrizio Buffet stems from its eye-catching façade, customized with three colored semicircular polycarbonate inlays, creating a visual 'pop' in the piece. The color scheme accentuates the striking contrast between the polycarbonate on the front and the side lacquered exterior of the horizontal surfaces of the side panel. Perfectly balanced in form, the Patrizio's design concept is in its minute details, as the clear polycarbonate bases add a flourish of lightness to the piece, completing the overall aesthetic and balancing out the strikingly bold identity of the work.
