

BORN BROKEN VASE

SKU # 53-40-82710

Inspired by the craft itself, these vases remind us of the otherwise unseen aspects of glass production – its production errors. Each hand-blown shape is broken into several segments and their edges additionally hammered to create a pattern visually similar to cutting. The individual pieces are reheated and joined into one unit, creating a safe and compact surface, but retaining their intriguing random patterns. PLEASE CONTACT US FOR PRICING
